CLASSICALLY CHRISTMAS

Our Langham classical Christmas tea has taken inspiration from the 1800's and the period that saw our hotel open its doors for the first time. The history of Christmas traditions changed enormously in the 19th Century, most of the now familiar components of the modern Christmas including Santa Claus and Christmas trees, became popular. We've taken inspiration from the decorations, foods and figures of that period and transformed our thoughts into our 'patisseries'. We have continued to focus on seasonality of ingredient, full flavours and lightened texture in our cakes to continually give the upmost pleasure to our discerning guests. We would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your loved ones a fantastic Christmas time!
