Eastview Cottage

Located on the east side of The Horseshoe Garden, Eastview Cottage was built in 1920 and originally served as a second home to Mrs. McNally of Rand McNally atlases. Renovated in 2010 and newly-enhanced in 2017, it features the charm of years past with brand new furnishings, carpet and the technological amenities of today. The cottage is comprised of two guest rooms which can be reserved individually or together, as a two bedroom cottage suite.

Eastview California Cottage Suite 1540

This 1,401-square-foot Eastview California Cottage Suite includes a master bedroom and separate living room area with comfortable seating, a work desk, an armoire, china cabinets, a fireplace and a dining room which seats six guests. The suite also offers pleasing views of the grounds and gardens and exclusive parking nearby. The outdoor patio features luxurious lounge furniture and full curtains for added privacy.
